

Quin Snyder - Head Coach

Quin Snyder was named the 15th full-time head coach of the Atlanta Hawks on February 26, 2023.

Snyder has led Atlanta to the postseason in each of his first two seasons as the team's coach, reaching the NBA playoffs in 2022-23. The 2023 playoffs marked Snyder's seventh straight playoff appearance, the longest streak in the league at that time.

He owns 418 career regular season wins, the 10th-most among all active head coaches. Snyder won his 400th career game on Jan. 19, as Atlanta won at Miami, 109-108.

Snyder served as head coach of the Utah Jazz from the 2014-15 to 2021-22 seasons, accumulating a 372-264 record (.585) and leading the Jazz to the playoffs in six of his eight seasons. Over his final six seasons (2016-17 to 2021-22), the Jazz compiled a 294-178 record, the third-highest winning percentage (.623) in the NBA and best in the Western Conference over that span. Utah started the 2020-21 season with a 23-5 record, earning Snyder the honor of being named the head coach of the 2021 Western Conference All-Star team, and finished the regular season with the best record in the NBA (52-20; .722) and the fifth-highest single-season winning percentage in franchise history. His 372 wins are the second-most in Jazz history behind only Jerry Sloan.

Snyder finished Top 10 in NBA Coach of the Year voting in four-of-five seasons between 2017-21, including second in 2018, third in 2021, sixth in 2017 and eighth in 2019. He is a four-time Western Conference Coach of the Month.

The Jazz reached the playoffs in six consecutive seasons, advancing to the Western Conference Semifinals on three occasions (2017, 2018 and 2021).

Before his hiring by the Jazz in 2014-15, Snyder was an assistant coach with the Hawks during the 2013-14 season on Mike Budenholzer's staff.

Prior to joining the Hawks in 2013-14, Snyder worked as an assistant coach for CKSA Moscow (2012-13), the Los Angeles Lakers (2011-12) and Philadelphia 76ers (2010-11). From 2007-10, Snyder was head coach of the Austin Toros (the NBA G League affiliate of the San Antonio Spurs), recording a 94-56 (.627) mark, while leading the Toros to three straight playoff appearances and the 2008 National Basketball Development League championship game. He was the 2008-09 D-League Coach of the Year.

Snyder began his head coaching career at the University of Missouri in 1999, where in seven seasons, he led the Tigers to a 128-96 (.571) record, and four NCAA Tournaments including an Elite Eight appearance. Prior to starting with Missouri, he served as a with assistant with the Los Angeles Clippers (1992-93) and at Duke (1995-99) under Mike Krzyzewski.

Snyder was named a McDonald's All-American at Mercer Island High School. He played in 136 games over four years (1985-89) at Duke University, reaching three Final Fours and earning Academic All-American honors.

Snyder earned undergraduate degrees in philosophy and political science from Duke, later earning a Juris Doctor and Master's in Business Administration (MBA) from Duke as well. He is a native of Mercer Island, WA.
