

Quin Snyder - Head Coach

Quin Snyder was named the 15th full-time head coach of the Atlanta Hawks on February 26, 2023. He signed a multi-year contract extension with the franchise on June 8, 2026.

Snyder led the Hawks to a 46-win regular season in 2025-26, a six-win improvement from 2024-25, and the Southeast Division title. It marked the club's most wins since the 2015-16 season, while advancing to the Eastern Conference Playoffs for the first time since 2022-23 and the 50th time in franchise history, earning the No. 6 seed. Atlanta averaged a franchise-best, and league-leading, 30.1 assists per game during the 2025-26 regular season, the ninth-most assists per game in a single season in NBA history.

From the 2026 NBA All-Star break to the end of the regular season, the Hawks compiled a 20-6 record (.769%), the best record amongst all Eastern Conference teams and the third-best record in the NBA, trailing only Western Conference finalists San Antonio Spurs (.857%) and Oklahoma City Thunder (.846%). Over that time, Atlanta ranked second in defensive rating (108.6) and fourth in net rating (9.7).

Under Snyder's guidance, Nickeil Alexander-Walker earned Kia Most Improved honors this past season, while Dyson Daniels earned the award in the 2024-25 campaign. Atlanta is the first team in NBA history to have players win back-to-back Most Improved Awards. Additionally, during 2025-26, Jalen Johnson earned a spot on the Kia All-NBA Third Team and landed his first All-Star selection. Daniels also was runner-up for the NBA Defensive Player of the Year award in 2024-25.

Snyder earned his 500th regular season win on Mar. 28, becoming the sixth active head coach to amass 500 victories. He earned his fifth career Coach of the Month honors after being named the Eastern Conference Coach of the Month in March, 2026. Snyder led the Hawks to an Eastern Conference-best 13-2 (.867%) record in the month, tied for the most wins in a single month in his head coaching career. Snyder has compiled 504 career wins, the fifth-most amongst all active NBA coaches. He owns 132 wins as head coach of the Hawks, the eighth-most in franchise history.

He joined the Hawks following eight seasons (2014-15 to 2021-22) at the helm of the Utah Jazz, accumulating a 372-264 record (.585) and leading the Jazz to the playoffs in six of his eight seasons. Over his final six seasons (2016-17 to 2021-22), the Jazz compiled a 294-178 record, the third-highest winning percentage (.623) in the NBA and best in the Western Conference over that span. Utah started the 2020-21 season with a 23-5 record, earning Snyder the honor of being named the head coach of the 2021 Western Conference All-Star team, and finished the regular season with the best record in the NBA (52-20; .722) and the fifth-highest single-season winning percentage in franchise history. His 372 wins are the second-most in Jazz history behind only Jerry Sloan.
Snyder finished Top 10 in NBA Coach of the Year voting in four-of-five seasons between 2017-21, including second in 2018 and third in 2021. He is a four-time Western Conference Coach of the Month.

The Jazz reached the playoffs in six consecutive seasons, advancing to the Western Conference Semifinals on three occasions (2017, 2018 and 2021).

Before his hiring by the Jazz in 2014-15, Snyder was an assistant coach with the Hawks during the 2013-14 season. Prior to joining the Hawks, Snyder worked as an assistant coach for CKSA Moscow (2012-13), the Los Angeles Lakers (2011-12) and Philadelphia 76ers (2010-11). From 2007-10, Snyder was head coach of the Austin Toros (the NBA G League affiliate of the San Antonio Spurs), recording a 94-56 (.627) mark, while leading the Toros to three straight playoff appearances and the 2008 National Basketball Development League championship game. He was the 2008-09 D-League Coach of the Year.

Snyder began his head coaching career at the University of Missouri in 1999, where in seven seasons, he led the Tigers to a 128-96 (.571) record, and four NCAA Tournaments including an Elite Eight appearance. Prior to coaching with Missouri, he served as an assistant with the Los Angeles Clippers (1992-93) under Larry Brown and at Duke (1995-99) was an assistant under Mike Krzyzewski.

Snyder played in 136 games over four years (1985-89) at Duke University, reaching three Final Fours, earning Academic All-American honors and was a team captain his senior season. Snyder was a McDonald's All-American at Mercer Island High School.

Snyder earned undergraduate degrees in philosophy and political science from Duke, later earning a Juris Doctor and Master's in Business Administration (MBA) from Duke as well. Snyder and his wife Amy started the Quin and Amy Snyder Foundation to support youth educational and leadership opportunities, as well as training and mentorship for their adult leaders. Snyder and his family reside in Atlanta, Georgia.

Bryan Bailey - Assistant Coach

Bryan Bailey is in his fourth season as an assistant coach with the Hawks. He came to Atlanta after spending four years as an assistant coach with the Utah Jazz.

Previously, Bailey served as an assistant coach with the Salt Lake City Stars and the Westchester Knicks, both of the NBA G League.

Bailey served as head coach of the Hawks' 2025 summer league team, leading the club to a 4-1 mark, Atlanta's best summer league record since beginning play in Las Vegas in 2010.

The Hempstead, N.Y. native's 13-year playing career took him to Germany (Wurzburg, Artland, Oldenburg, Medi Bayreuth), the Netherlands (Landstede Zwolle), Bosnia (KK Bosna), Poland (PGE Turow), Cyprus (Keravnos) and Italy (Virtus Roma).

He is the co-founder of DIME Athletics, which focuses on assisting competitive high school, collegiate and pro basketball players on improving their basketball skills, strength, conditioning and overall athleticism.

Bailey played collegiately at Bucknell University, where he was named First Team All-Patriot League in his final two seasons. He is a Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist (CSCS) by the National Strength and Conditioning Association.

Mike Brey - Assistant Coach

Mike Brey is entering his fourth season as an assistant coach with the Hawks following a memorable run as head coach at Notre Dame, where he finished as the winningest coach in school history, accumulating a 483-280 (.633) mark over 23 seasons.

Under his guidance, the Irish reached the postseason 18 times, including 13 NCAA Tournament berths, three Sweet 16 trips, two Elite Eight appearances and the 2015 ACC Championship.

Originally named head coach at Notre Dame in 2000, Brey was named the Associated Press and the Henry Iba/USBWA National Coach of the Year award in 2011, while also being named BIG EAST Coach of the Year in 2006-07, 2007-08 and 2010-11.

Prior to his arrival at Notre Dame, Brey served as head coach at University of Delaware, where he compiled a 99-52 mark from 1995-2000 and won America East Co-Coach of the Year honors in 1998.

Brey was previously an assistant coach at Duke University for eight years, helping the Blue Devils to advance to the Final Four six times and win back-to-back national championships in 1991 and 1992.

Before entering the collegiate ranks, Brey played for and coached with legendary coach Morgan Wootten and DeMatha High School.

This past summer, Brey served as an analyst for The Basketball Tournament (TBT), alongside Hawks play-by-play announcer Bob Rathbun.

He is a graduate of George Washington University with a degree in physical education. Brey and his wife, Suzanne, have four children between them - Kyle, Callie, Emmett and Wade – and Brey has three grandchildren, Olivia, Jude and Wes.

Steve Klei - Assistant Coach

In his fourth full season in Atlanta is assistant coach Steve Klei, who most recently served as head coach of the College Park Skyhawks from 2024-26.

Across his two-year stint, the Skyhawks set numerous franchise records, including breaking the single season franchise record for most assists and three-pointers both seasons, and most rebounds (2337) during the 2024-25 season.

Under Klei's lead, College Park saw multiple players receive NBA callups, including Malik Williams (two-way) during the 2025-26 season, and Tony Bradley (two 10-day contracts, multi-year contract), Kevon Harris (10-day) and Daeqwon Plowden (NBA two-way) during the 2024-25 season.

Klei and his staff were also instrumental in leading the development of Asa Newell (2025-26, 15GP) and Mouhamed Gueye (2024-25, 24GP) while on assignment with the Skyhawks. Additionally, Dominick Barlow and Keaton Wallace were both converted from two-way to standard contracts during Klei's tenure.

Klei joined the Hawks in March, 2023, after spending the first part of the 2022-23 season with Olimpia Milano in Italy as director of player development.

He was previously with the Utah Jazz from 2016-22, spending time in the DAV program (player development/advanced scouting/video), including as head video coordinator prior to becoming a coaching associate.

He began his career with the Canton Charge of the NBA G League in 2015-16. Klei is a graduate of Indiana University with a degree in Kinesiology, Sports Marketing and Management.

Antonio Lang - Assistant Coach

In his fourth season as a Hawks assistant coach is Antonio Lang.

He came to Atlanta after four seasons with the Cleveland Cavaliers as an assistant coach following five seasons with the Utah Jazz (2014-19).

Before joining the Jazz, Lang served as head coach of the Mitsubishi Diamond Dolphins in Japan for four years.

Selected by Phoenix with the 29th overall pick in the 1994 NBA Draft, Lang played in 143 career regular season games with the Suns, Cavaliers, Miami Heat, Toronto Raptors and Philadelphia 76ers over six seasons.

He also played in the Continental Basketball Association (CBA), International Basketball League (IBL), in the Philippines and in Japan. He is fluent in Japanese.

Raised in Mobile, AL., Lang played four collegiate seasons at Duke University (1990-94), appearing in three Final Fours and winning back-to-back national titles in 1991 and 1992.

Sanjay Lumpkin

– Assistant Coach & Head Coach, College Park Skyhawks

Sanjay Lumpkin is in his fourth season as an assistant coach with the Hawks. He also serves as head coach of the Hawks' NBA G League affiliate, the College Park Skyhawks, a position he was named to in September 2026.

Lumpkin also played for the Skyhawks, appearing in 33 games during the 2019-20 season.

He served as head coach of the Hawks' Summer League Team in Las Vegas this past offseason, leading the team to a 3-2 finish.

Lumpkin came to Atlanta from the Utah Jazz, where he was a player development coach in 2022-23 following two years on Utah's DAV (player development/advance scouting/video) staff.

He played five collegiate seasons at Northwestern University (2012-17) before playing in the NBA G League with the Erie BayHawks (2018-19) and the Skyhawks.

Lumpkin holds a degree in learning & organizational change from Northwestern, where he also earned a Master's in Sports Administration.

Reggis Onwukamuche

- Assistant Coach & Associate Head Coach, College Park Skyhawks

Former College Park Skyhawks player Reggis Onwukamuche is in his fourth season with the Hawks and third as an assistant coach. He spent 2023-24 as a player development coach prior to his promotion.

He also serves as associate head coach of the Skyhawks.

Onwukamuche came to Atlanta after having worked with the Utah Jazz in DAV (player development/advanced scouting/video) during the 2021-22 season and with the Milwaukee Bucks in 2022-23 as assistant video coordinator/player development.

As a player, the native of Houston, Texas appeared in 144 career games in the NBA G League, also spending time with the Lakeland Magic and Erie BayHawks. He was also part of the Hawks' mini-camp roster in September 2020.

Onwukamuche played collegiately at Prairie View A&M from 2013-15, appearing in 64 contests.

Jason Love - Assistant Coach

Jason Love enters his first season as an assistant coach with the Hawks.

Love comes to Atlanta after spending the past two seasons with the Milwaukee Bucks as an assistant coach/player development. Prior to Milwaukee, Love spent five seasons with the Philadelphia 76ers, starting as a player development associate in 2019, before being promoted to skill development coach in 2021, and assistant coach in 2023.

A native of Philadelphia, Pa., Love played college basketball at Xavier University (2006-10) where he holds the record for the Musketeers' all-time leader in wins, finishing with a record of 108-33 and four NCAA Tournament appearances, including the Elite Eight during his sophomore campaign. Love went on to play overseas for seven seasons spanning across Belgium, Israel, Ukraine, Turkey and Argentina.

Love and his wife, Florence, have three children Naya, Kaya and Zoey.

Ryan Schmidt - Assistant Coach

Ryan Schmidt is in his fourth season as an assistant coach with the Hawks.

In 2023-24, he also served as head coach of the College Park Skyhawks of the NBA G League, where he guided the team to the best defensive season in franchise history. The Skyhawks led the G League in opponent points per game (102.9), field goals made per game (35.7) and points in the paint (44.0), while ranking second in defensive rating (105.5) and opponent field goal percentage (.444).

BASKETBALL ACADEMY

Schmidt came to Atlanta after spending the 2022-23 campaign as head coach of the London Lions of the British Basketball League, where he was named the 2023 BBL Coach of the Year after leading the team to three domestic titles.

Schmidt previously served as head coach of the Brampton Honey Badgers of the Canadian Elite Basketball League from 2020-22, where he earned 2022 CEBL Coach of the Year honors for leading the Honey Badgers to the CEBL Championship. He was also an assistant coach for Raptors 905 of the NBA G League for four seasons (2017-21).

A native of Keizer, Ore., Schmidt played college basketball at the University of Hawaii (2001-04) and at Western Oregon University (2004-05). While at Western Oregon, Schmidt served as team captain and led the Wolves in scoring his senior year before being selected by Idaho in the 2008 NBA Development League Draft. Schmidt played for Honolulu in the American Basketball Association during the 2009-10 season.

He and his wife, Whitney, have a daughter named Deklynn and a son, Beckham.

Ekpe Udoh – Assistant Coach

Longtime NBA and international big man Ekpe Udoh is in his fourth season as an assistant coach with the Hawks after 13 professional playing seasons.

Udoh is also a member of the coaching staff for the Nigeria men's national team.

A former sixth overall pick in 2010 by Golden State, Udoh appeared in 384 regular season games (56 starts) for the Warriors, Milwaukee Bucks, LA Clippers and Utah Jazz, with international stops in Israel, Turkey, China, Italy and Japan.

With Fenerbahce (Turkey) from 2015-17, Udoh earned All-EuroLeague First Team honors and Final Four MVP, leading the league in rebounding and blocks en route to the EuroLeague championship.

Udoh played collegiately at Michigan (2006-08) and Baylor (2009-10). He is an avid reader who created “Ekpe’s Book Club” during his playing career, routinely hosting club meetings and social media chats.

Ashton Smith - Assistant Coach

Ashton Smith is in his third season with the Hawks and second as an assistant coach. He spent the 2024-25 campaign as a player development coach after time in the 2023-24 season with the College Park Skyhawks as an assistant coach.

Smith has previous coaching experience with the London Lions, Raptors 905 and Hamilton Honeybadgers of the CEBL.

His playing career spanned eight years and six countries, including Austria, Canada, Colombia, Germany, Indonesia and the NBA G League.

Smith played collegiately at Indiana University of Pennsylvania (IUP), where he left as the all-time leader in wins and assists, was a three-time conference champion, the 2011-12 conference player of the year, and 2011-12 NCAA Division II All-American. He was inducted into the school’s Hall of Fame in 2024.

Smith was born and raised in Scarborough, Ontario, Canada. He and his wife, Falan, have a son, Kairo and a daughter, Kalina.

Jeff Watkinson - Assistant Coach

Jeff Watkinson is in his fourth full season as an assistant coach for the Hawks. He returned to the organization in March, 2023, after spending seven seasons as assistant coach/integrated player development with the Utah Jazz. Watkinson was originally with the Hawks as the team's strength and conditioning coach from 2012-15.

Prior to his initial stint with the Hawks, Watkinson served in similar capacities at Indiana University, University of Missouri, Clemson University, UNC Charlotte and the College of Charleston.

The suburban Chicago native is a graduate of North Carolina State University (pre-medicine), where he played collegiate baseball. He later earned a Master's in Exercise Science from Indiana University.

Jeff is the father of two children – daughter Evelyn (8) and son Dax (6).

Seth Jackson - Assistant Coach

Seth Jackson enters his third season with the franchise and first on the Hawks staff after spending the last two seasons as an assistant coach with the College Park Skyhawks.

Jackson previously served as an assistant coach with the Oklahoma City Blue from 2022-24 and was part of the squad that defeated the Maine Celtics 2-1 in the 2024 NBA G League Championship. Prior to serving as a video coordinator with the Thunder during the 2021-22 season, Jackson held roles as the director of scouting & analytics at George Washington University (2020-21), assistant coach at McKendree University (2018-2020) and as a video coordinator and operations intern at the Grand Rapids Drive.

The Richmond, Virginia, native played professionally overseas with BC Balkan in Bulgaria (2015-16) and with Vllaznia Shkodra in Albania (2016-17) after a four-year colligate career at Truman State University. Jackson was a four-time All-Conference honoree, was named the Mid-America Intercollegiate Athletic Association (MIAA) Freshman of the Year in 2011-12 and capped his career ranked third on the Bulldogs' all-time scoring list with 1,655 points.

Kendal Manuel - Assistant Coach

Kendal Manuel is in his second season with the Hawks as a player development coach.
He spent the previous two years with the Phoenix Suns, working first as a coaching associate before moving to an assistant video coordinator role.

BASKETBALL ACADEMY

Manuel came to Phoenix after spending time with the Portland Trail Blazers as a player development/video intern.

The native of Billings, Montana played professionally in Spain and France following his collegiate career at Oregon State and Montana. He was named the Big Sky Conference Co-Newcomer of the Year in 2019 and All-Big Sky Conference second team in 2020.

Jacob Porter - Assistant Coach

Jacob Porter is in his first season as a player development coach following four seasons as part of the Hawks' DAV (player development/advance scouting/video) staff, most recently as head video coordinator.

He originally joined the organization as an assistant coach with the College Park Skyhawks, the Hawks' NBA G League affiliate, in 2021. Porter has also spent time as an assistant coach with both the Nigerian National Team and Grand Rapids Drive. He served as a basketball operations intern with the Detroit Pistons in 2019 and assisted USA Basketball for their World Cup qualifying events in 2018 and 2019.

The Morehead State graduate, who earned a degree in Strategic Communication & Leadership, started in professional basketball with the Erie BayHawks of the NBA G League as a basketball operations intern. He is originally from Russell, Ky.

College Park Skyhawks Coaches

Sanjay Lumpkin – Head Coach

Sanjay Lumpkin is in his fourth season as an assistant coach with the Hawks. He also serves as head coach of the Hawks' NBA G League affiliate, the College Park Skyhawks, a position he was named to in September, 2026.

Lumpkin also played for the Skyhawks, appearing in 33 games during the 2019-20 season.

He served as head coach of the Hawks' Summer League Team in Las Vegas this past offseason, leading the team to a 3-2 finish.

Lumpkin came to Atlanta from the Utah Jazz, where he was a player development coach in 2022-23 following two years on Utah's DAV (player development/advance scouting/video) staff.

He played five collegiate seasons at Northwestern University (2012-17) before playing in the NBA G League with the Erie BayHawks (2018-19) and the Skyhawks.

Lumpkin holds a degree in learning & organizational change from Northwestern, where he also earned a Master's in Sports Administration.

Reggis Onwukamuche – Associate Head Coach

Former College Park Skyhawks player Reggis Onwukamuche is in his fourth season with the Hawks and third as an assistant coach. He spent 2023-24 as a player development coach prior to his promotion.

He also serves as associate head coach of the Skyhawks.

Onwukamuche came to Atlanta after having worked with the Utah Jazz in DAV (player development/advanced scouting/video) during the 2021-22 season and with the Milwaukee Bucks in 2022-23 as assistant video coordinator/player development.

As a player, the native of Houston, Texas appeared in 144 career games in the NBA G League, also spending time with the Lakeland Magic and Erie BayHawks. He was also part of the Hawks' mini-camp roster in September 2020.

Onwukamuche played collegiately at Prairie View A&M from 2013-15, appearing in 64 contests.

Wesley Johnson - Assistant Coach

Former NBA player Wesley Johnson enters his first season as an assistant coach with the College Park Skyhawks after serving as a player development coach for the Los Angeles Clippers from 2021-2026. Johnson enjoyed a 10-year professional basketball career after being selected fourth overall by the Minnesota

Timberwolves in the 2010 NBA Draft. He appeared in 618 NBA contests with the Timberwolves, Suns, Lakers, Clippers, Pelicans and Wizards, and earned All-Rookie Second Teams honors in 2011.

Johnson spent his first two collegiate seasons at Iowa State, earning Big 12 All-Rookie Team honors in 2007. After transferring to Syracuse University, he earned Big East Player of the Year and Consensus First Team All-American honors during his junior season.

Leander Ridgeway Jr. - Assistant Coach

Leander Ridgeway Jr. enters his first season with the College Park Skyhawks after spending the 2025-26 season as an assistant video coordinator with the Utah Jazz. Prior to joining Utah, Ridgeway served as a graduate assistant at Kentucky during the 2024-25 season and at BYU during the 2023-24 season, helping the Wildcats advance to the 2025 NCAA Tournament Sweet Sixteen and the Cougars earn a berth in the 2024 NCAA Tournament, respectively.

A native of Lexington, Kentucky, Ridgeway played collegiately at Lee University and later transferred to Asbury University, where he was named the 2020 River States Conference Newcomer of the Year and earned First Team All-River States Conference honors as a senior.

Dustin Ware - Assistant Coach

Ware is in his second season with the Skyhawks after serving as an assistant coach with Pace Academy in Atlanta from 2024-25. Prior to his time at Pace, Ware started Elevation Sports Academy, where he provided high level on-court training to high school, college, and professional players in the Atlanta area. The Powder Springs, Georgia, native played overseas for 10 years across Europe and South Africa.

A graduate of the University of Georgia, Ware was a four-year player for the Bulldogs from 2008-12, finishing tied for sixth all-time in total assists in Georgia history (400) and career free-throw percentage (.804%), and seventh in three-pointers made (194).